

You Can Run, But You Can't Hide

September Sermon Series

Many people are running from God. They've been going to church, attended studies, and exposed to the truth of God's Word. But, what's their challenge. They know the truth but don't apply it. Their hearts become hardened to the work of God in their lives and they live shallow lives of half hearted obedience. That's sad!

God wants more and will work in the circumstances of your life to develop you. If you can grasp the fact that God is still there when you're running you'll move one step closer to Him. This month on Sunday morning we'll be looking at how we build God out of our lives and what God does to bring us back. This exciting sermon series will focus on Jonah (it's a book in the Old Testament that you can read in less than 15 minutes).

Jonah is a believable account of a harrowing sea experience and of an unprecedented Gentile response to an ever-so-brief exposure to preaching about the need for repentance. But it happened! The most compelling case for the authenticity of the story of Jonah is made by Jesus in Matthew 12:40-41: "For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41 The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now one greater than Jonah is here." Jesus believed this was a true story. This month we'll look at four aspects in our sermon series. Come and join us!
